

ENTER TO Win!

Complete this ballot and drop it in the Canadian Music Trivia Ballot Box. One entry per person. The person with the most correct answers will win a music-themed gift basket! In the case of a tie, the winner will be drawn from the eligible ballots. Contest runs from May 1-31.

This renowned Canadian singer-songwriter was the first black Canadian to achieve major international success in popular music and his brother is a best-selling author.

This band, a sextet specializing in a unique fusion of folk, jazz, pop, rock, and many other influences, came up with their band name while bored at a Bob Dylan concert.

After releasing three albums in Canada, this Canadian rock group won a contest to be on the cover of Rolling Stone in 2011 and saw their popularity skyrocket.

This singer/songwriter co-wrote the Oscar-winning song "Up Where We Belong" recorded by Joe Cocker and Jennifer Warnes for the film "An Officer and a Gentleman".

Which Canadian rock star took a picture of the Queen that was chosen and released as a Canadian stamp?

A charity single for African famine relief was recorded by a super group of Canadian recording artists in 1985. What was the song called?

Before making it big in BTO, Randolph Charles Bachman was a founding member of which famous Canadian music group?

What Canadian band is third, behind The Beatles and The Rolling Stones, for the most consecutive gold or platinum studio albums?

Which female Canadian musician was the "Metal Queen"?

Who is the only Canadian female member of the Grand Ole Opry?

Which Canadian music icon has directed and co-directed several films under the name Bernard Shakey?

What Canadian singer/songwriter wrote Frank Sinatra's best-selling song?

Name: _____ Card #: 29364_____

Contact Info: _____