FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Oshawa Public Libraries Presents: Internationally Acclaimed Author Dorris Heffron

Oshawa Public Libraries, Legends Centre Branch, May 14, 2018, 6:30 PM

Internationally acclaimed author, Dorris Heffron, will be at the Legends Centre Branch of Oshawa Public Libraries on Monday, May 14 at 6:30 p.m. to talk about her latest novel, City Wolves.

City Wolves tells the story of Canada's first female veterinarian, who became the notorious "Dog Doctor of Halifax", and how wolves became sled dogs. The novel takes place in the 1890s and focusses on the Klondike Gold Rush and its sled dogs.

Heffron is a Canadian author who has served on the National Council of the Writers' Union, the Board of Directors of PEN Canada, the Toronto Arts Council, as well as reviewed books for the Globe and Mail.

You can purchase signed copies of her books at the event, cash only.

Space is limited for this event so please register at events.oshlib.ca.
