FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Oshawa Public Libraries Celebrates Jess Hann Branch 40th Anniversary

Oshawa Public Libraries, Jess Hann Branch, March 1st, 2017, 6:45 PM – 8 PM

The Jess Hann Branch of the Oshawa Public Libraries celebrates 40 years of service this year. The beloved South Oshawa branch is known as a resource hub and a friendly space for the local community.

On March 1st, 1977 the doors of Jess Hann opened. Robert Hann generously donated space to the Oshawa Public Libraries in memory of his father Jess Hann. The community hub has seen many changes throughout the years and now has a designated children's space, reading area with a fire place, and bright décor.

On Wednesday March 1st from 6:45 - 8:00 pm the Jess Hann Branch will be travelling back to 1977 with James Begley, an Elvis Presley impersonator for entertainment in celebration of 40 years of serving the South Oshawa community.

Register at events.oshlib.ca as space is limited. For more information, contact us at 905-579-6111 ext. 5200.
