

Books On Anorexia

(Ages 13-18)

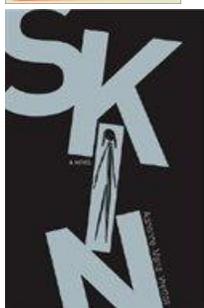

You Remind Me of You

By Eireann Corrigan
A startling autobiographical account of a young woman's battle with eating disorders, and a courageous story about the strange paths we take to recovery.

Stick Figure

By Lori Gottlieb
Stick Figure is a surprisingly upbeat memoir. It is a wry and engaging observation of an eating disorder and the society that contributed to it.

Skin

By Adrienne Maria Vrettos
Beginning with the death of his anorexic sister, fourteen-year-old Donnie recounts his life before with parents who rage at each other, friends who want nothing to do with him and a crush on his sister's friend.

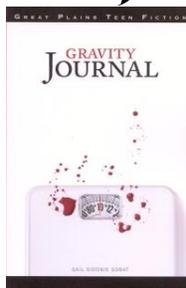

Does this Book Make Me Look Fat?

Edited by Marissa Walsh
14 of today's most popular and critically acclaimed YA authors weigh in on the topic of body image.

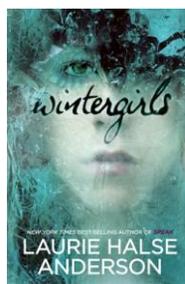

Skinny

By Ibi Kaslik
Giselle, a no-longer functioning anorexic, and her sister, 14-year old track star Holly, must both come to terms with their adult selves as life's problems start to pile up.

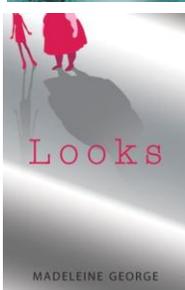

Gravity Journal

By Gail Sidonie Sobat
Life is very grave for Anise. Hospitalized for anorexia, she wonders about the point of it all. Her only free choice is to turn to her journal - the place where she can dream, and where she can decide whether to live or die.

Wintergirls

By Laurie Halse Anderson
Lia and Cassie are best friends and competitors in a deadly contest to see who can be the skinniest. But what comes after size zero and size double-zero?

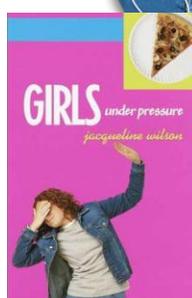

Looks

By Madeleine George
Despite her massive size, Meghan is the most invisible person at Valley Regional High. Aimee is as skinny as Meghan is large. Together, they decide to get sweet revenge against the girl in school who hurt them both.

Just Listen

By Sarah Dessen
This multi-layered tale tells the story of a year in the life of a family coming to terms with the imperfections beneath its perfect façade.

Girls Under Pressure

By Jacqueline Wilson
Feeling left behind by her beautiful friends, Ellie decides to go on an extreme diet, but soon winds up lying, starving, and miserable.