

Jungle Books (Ages 13-18)

Little Brother

By Cory Doctorow

Marcus is only seventeen years old, but he has no trouble outwitting his high school's intrusive but clumsy surveillance systems.

Mistik Lake

By Martha Brooks

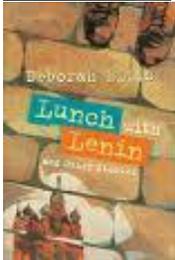

What happens when you don't have the courage to follow your own heart, and what can happen when you do?

Mountain Girl, River Girl

By Ting-Xing Ye

As the dreams of two girls born miles apart turn into nightmares, they must face their challenges together.

Lunch with Lenin and Other Stories

By Deborah Ellis

A collection of short stories explores the lives of children who have been affected directly, or indirectly, by drugs.

Tom FINDER

By Martine Leavitt

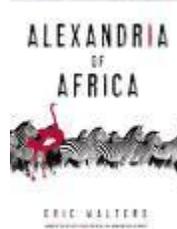

From the onset he's on the run, a street kid thrust out on his own. Now he's caught up in a quest to find a lost teenager whose father is desperate for news of his son.

Far From You

By Lisa Schroeder

When a deadly snowstorm traps Alice, she looks to the heavens for guidance to face the issues she's been avoiding for too long.

Alexandria of Africa

By Eric Walters

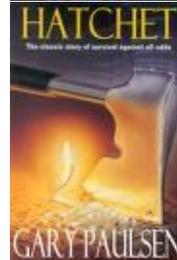

Over 7,000 miles away from home with no hot water, no cell phone reception, no friends or family, Alexandria is confronted with a land as unfamiliar as it is unsettling.

The Hunger Games

By Suzanne Collins

The Hunger Games is a violent, jarring, speed-rap of a novel that generates nearly constant suspense...

Hatchet

By Gary Paulsen

Brian finds himself alone in the Canadian wilderness with nothing but a tattered windbreaker and a hatchet. It will take all his know how and determination to survive.

Eva

By Peter Dickinson

When Eva awakes from a coma she senses there is something that she's not being told. There is a price to be alive. What have they done with all their medical techniques to save her?
