

Books On Music (Ages 13-18)

Fat Kid Rules The World

By K. L. Going

Troy's life changes when he meets Curt, a semi-homeless punk guitar genius and local drop-out legend.

This Lullaby

By Sarah Dessen

Remy's mom is a famous author who's currently on husband number 5. It's no wonder Remy and relationships don't mix. Until Dexter.

She's Got the Beat

By Nancy Krulik

Miranda's quiet personality vanishes when she learns to play the drums and joins an all-male band.

Audrey, Wait!

By Robin Benway

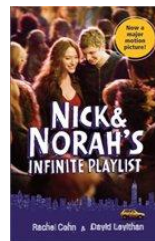

When Audrey dumps her self-involved boyfriend Evan, he writes a break-up song called "Audrey, Wait!" It becomes a number one hit, and suddenly Audrey is famous.

Candy

By Kevin Brooks

Joe, a cautious music lover in a band called the Katies, falls in love with Candy, a girl on the streets who's addicted to heroin.

Nick and Norah's Infinite Playlist

By Rachel Cohn and David Levithan

Though they have only their taste in music in common, Nick and Norah set out for one crazy, sleepless night of live, loud music.

Born to Rock

By Gordon Korman

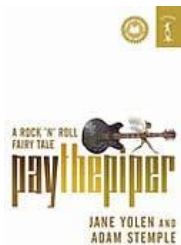

When Leo's tuition money is revoked he hits the road with his punk rock star father in hopes of getting some much needed cash, but discovers some new things about his dad instead.

Guitar Girl

By Sarra Manning

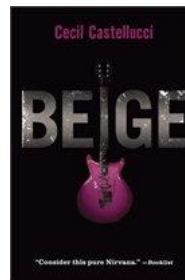

Molly and her mates just wanted to start a band and have some fun, but when a charismatic bad-boy joins their group, things start happening for them.

Pay the Piper

By Jane Yolen and Adam Stemple

Callie loves the band Brass Rat, but when the children of her town disappear on Halloween night, she suspects she knows where they've been taken.

Beige

By Cecil Castellucci

Katy is forced to spend the summer with her drummer father, punk name The Rat. But even though he's hardly a father, Katy won't complain because she's, well, beige. Or is she?
