For Guys

(Ages 12-18)

The Last Knight

By Hilari Bell

Sir Michael Stevenson, the first knight errant in two hundred years, and his reluctant partner Fisk have to find the dangerous Lady Cecil after they free her from a tower thinking her a damsel in distress.

The Stowaway

By R.A. and Geno Salvatore

Fleeing his home, Maimum stows away on the pirate hunting ship Sea Sprite where he meets the dark elf Drizt Do'Urden.

The Fetch

By Chris Humphreys

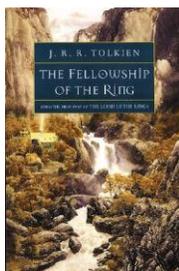

In the attic, in an old sea chest, secreted away, are a mysterious journal and a set of runes: 24 stones that will change Sky's life forever.

Larklight

By Philip Reeve

Art and his sister Murtyl live in Larklight, a house travelling through space. When a stranger arrives, they find themselves on a quest to the furthest reaches of known space.

The Fellowship of the Ring

By J.R.R. Tolkien

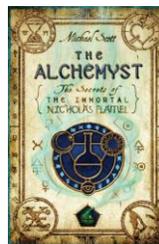

Frodo, a young hobbit, must set out on an incredible journey to destroy a ring of evil and stop an evil ruler from seizing control of the land.

Jo-Jo and the Fiendish Lot

By Andrew Auseon

Jo-Jo meets the punk rock group "The Fiendish Lot" and learns that they come from Afterlife. When Jo-Jo follows a girl from the band back there he realizes that being alive is kind of cool.

The Alchemyst

By Michael Scott

Sophie and Josh Newman must stop Dr. John Dee from using an ancient book – stolen from the immortal Nicholas Flamel – to destroy the world.

Gone

By Michael Grant

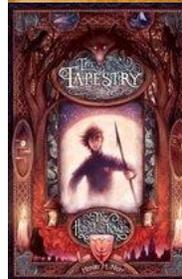

In the blink of an eye all those over the age of 14 disappear. Those left behind must battle hunger, chaos, and their own strange mutations to survive.

The Knife of Never Letting Go

By Patrick Ness

A month from becoming a man in a town where all the females have been wiped out by a germ, Todd makes an incredible discovery – he stumbles across a girl.

The Hound of Rowan

By Henry H. Neff

Max's discovery of a strange Celtic tapestry leads him to the Rowan Academy where great things – and dark ones too – await him.
