FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Oshawa Public Libraries Presents: International Bestselling Author Jennifer Robson

Oshawa Public Libraries, McLaughlin Branch, November 9, 2017, 6:30 PM

Jennifer Robson, international bestselling author of Goodnight from London, will be joining us in the McLaughlin Branch Local History Room on November 9, 6:30 PM to discuss her career as a novelist and her occasionally unconventional approach to researching her novels.

Jennifer Robson's fictional novels transpire in the era of WWI and WWII. Her stories are woven with friendship, romance, history, and the divide that often occurs within or between social classes.

Robson is a Canadian author who lives in Toronto. Her background as an editor and a self-proclaimed history geek lend her novels a genuine feel. Her style and subject matter appeal to those who enjoy historical/romance fiction, and to those who follow television series such as Downton Abbey.

Join us on Thursday, November 9 at 6:30 PM in the McLaughlin Branch Local History Room to hear Jennifer Robson talk about her writing career and get a sneak peek at her new novel, The Gown, which focuses on Princess Elizabeth's 1947 wedding.

A variety of Jennifer Robson's books will be available for purchase at the event. Cash only.
